Dear Sirs,

Your letter of February 17 with regard to the forthcoming joint meeting of March 10 for discussion of the UNHCR (Alto Comision de las Naciones Unidas) contracts for 1978 reached us, together with its Enclosures, on February 27. Mrs. van Hoogevest had already left for a trip to Turkey and Austria.

The Commission gave full attention to your request, but decided it would be best to wait for Mrs. van Hoogevest's return on March 7 as her response, probably by cable, would be of more assistance to you in debating your 1978 program work with ACNUR. We realise this matter is of vital interest to you and most urgent.

Meanwhile, we remain,

Sincerely yours,
