RESETTLEMENT MILESTONES

APPOINTMENTS

Australia

Following a restructure within the Australian Council of Churches, Mr. Tim SHAO has been appointed National Director of the ACC Refugee and Migrant Services, in charge of the overall ACC/WCC resettlement programme.

Miss Daphne ARTHUR has been appointed Coordinator of the Refugee and Migrant Services for the region of Victoria which she combines with the duties of Agency Sponsorship Officer for Victoria.

Mrs Hermine PARTAMIAN is now Coordinator of Refugee and Migrant Services for New South Wales.

Hong Kong

Mrs Lilly Neugebauer was appointed Deputy Director of the Refugee Resettlement office of the recently formed Hong Kong Christian Aid to Refugees. The new Agency has in agreement with the HKCC taken over the responsibility for WCC refugee projects and resettlement in Hong Kong.

With our congratulations on their appointments, we look forward to a happy and constructive cooperation.

RETIREMENTS

Dr Laszlo Benyei, whom I think everybody linked with Refugee Service knew personally or through correspondence has retired after many years of devoted service as Director, Resettlement for Southern Region of the Australian Council of Churches. It was a privilege to work with Dr. Benyei and many new Australians gratefully remember that it was he who enabled them to find a new home and start a new life. Our thanks to Laszlo Benyei would be incomplete if they did not include his wife Dorothy and his sons, whose affection and loyalty have been an immense help during Laszlo Benyei's distinguished career.

We all wish this outstanding colleague and friend a happy time ahead, with plenty of interests, old and new, free from pressures and stress.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs L.M. BEATSON, former Director of the WCC Resettlement Office in Rome, Italy passed away in England shortly before her 87th birthday. Messages of sympathy were sent to her son.

Mrs Helen MYER, our resettlement correspondent in Jerusalem died after a long illness, keeping to the end her keen sense of humour which had so often brightened our work in years past.

Both will be remembered with gratitude and affection.

Geneva, 11 August 1986
